THE preſent eventful Moment calls for every Species of Exertion in the loyal and well affected.

To animate and to reward the gallant Troops who have ſo bravely ſtood in our Defence, and in Support of the Conſtitution, is the Dictate of Policy, of Humanity, and of Gratitude.

In no Inſtance can this be done more effectually than by making Proviſion for the Wives and Children of ſuch as have fallen, or may fall, in the Conteſt.

It is therefore propoſed forthwith to raiſe a Subſcription for this moſt intereſting Purpoſe; and all Perſons deſirous of promoting it, are requeſted to pay in their Contributions to the Right Honourable DAVID LATOUCHE and Company.
